ABOUT AAPM®

Who are we?

The American Academy of Project Management (AAPM®) is an international organization. More than 30,000 AAPM®-certified holders in over 140+ countries serve various industries worldwide, including engineering construction, energy, chemical industry, information technology, finance, management consulting, medicine and health, automobile manufacturing, logistics, and transportation.

AAPM's Global Journey

The American Academy of Project Management (AAPM®) has a rich history that dates back to 1951. It began in the United States and gradually expanded its presence throughout the Americas during the 1970s. Later, it established itself in Italy and entered the European market. Through Dubai, its influence spread across the entire Arab region. With the help of United Nations non-governmental organizations, the AAPM shared its project management knowledge system widely in African countries such as Rwanda, Kenya, and Nigeria.

Nowadays

Headquarters of AAPM® is located in Colorado, United States. We have chapters and cooperative organizations in 42 countries worldwide.

Our representative offices are in many parts of the world, including the USA, Colorado, New York, Silicon Valley, Singapore, India, Moscow, Istanbul, Dubai, Athens, Guyana, Puerto Rico, Bahamas, Kuwait, Latin America, South America, Europe and China (Beijing, Chongqing and Hong Kong).

for project management professionals

Our Standards

The AAPM is one of the founding organizations of the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) Quality Group Standards. It is included in the U.S. Department of Labor's Employment Guidance Handbook. We are registered as a training provider with the US Department of Education.

Moreover, we are certified with the ISO9001 Quality Management System, ISO29993 Education Services System, and ISO21001 Educational Organization Management System.

Nation Accreditations

Talent Exchange Center of the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology (工业和信息化部人才交流中心) issues project management proficiency assessment certificates corresponding to our qualifications that serve as references for competency assessments, job recruitment, and promotion.

Our qualifications are also listed in the Data Talent Search Database of China Tendering and Bidding Network (中国招标投标网). They are eligible for personal income tax deductions and are significant references in domestic projects, government procurement, and award selection processes.

AAPM can recommend members to join the China Construction Industry Association (中国建筑业协会) and issue membership certificates. CCIA membership provides networking, industry insights, professional development, standards adherence, visibility of exclusive events, etc.
